Differences Between the EPA and Mississippi RRP Regulations

To conduct Lead-Based Paint activities in Mississippi, the Renovator Firm and Individual must both comply with the requirements of the State of Mississippi RRP Regulations.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Renovator Firm Certification Requirements</th>
<th>State of Mississippi RRP Regulations</th>
<th>EPA RRP Regulations</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Notification Requirements</td>
<td>Notification must be submitted to MDEQ 6 working days before work begins.</td>
<td>No notification is required</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Renovator Individual Certification Requirements</th>
<th>State of Mississippi RRP Regulations</th>
<th>EPA RRP Regulations</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Renovator individual must recertify with MDEQ each year.</td>
<td>Renovator individual must recertify with MDEQ each year.</td>
<td>Renovator individual is considered certified upon completion of training.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Refresher Training Requirements</th>
<th>State of Mississippi RRP Regulations</th>
<th>EPA RRP Regulations</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Refresher training is required every 3 years.</td>
<td>Refresher training is required every 5 years.</td>
<td>Refresher training is required every 5 years.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Renovator Individual Qualification Requirements</th>
<th>State of Mississippi RRP Regulations</th>
<th>EPA RRP Regulations</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>To become a MS Certified Renovator Individual, a person must have a High School diploma and 1 year experience, or 2 years experience in a related field.</td>
<td>To become a MS Certified Renovator Individual, a person must have a High School diploma and 1 year experience, or 2 years experience in a related field.</td>
<td>No educational or experience requirements are included in the regulations.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>