

Enhancing Sustainability In the Food and Beverage Industry

Friday, September 28, 2018
MDEQ Commission Hearing Room

515 Amite St.
Jackson, MS

Enhancing Sustainability In the Food and Beverage Industry

Welcome

Gary Rikard

Executive Director

Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality

Recognition

Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality
(MDEQ)

Mississippi Manufacturers Association (MMA)

Mississippi Manufacturers Association

Mississippi Manufacturers Association-Manufacturing
Extension Partnership (MMA-MEP)

Enhancing Sustainability In the Food and Beverage Industry

Agenda

- * Importance of Food and Beverage Industry in Mississippi/Importance of Sustainability – Brent Bailey, 25x’25 Alliance/Solutions from the Land
- * Management and Disposal of Nonhazardous Industrial Waste – Charlie Bock, MDEQ
- * Reduce, Reuse and Recycle at Your Facility – Jennifer Milner, MDEQ
- * 10:25 – Break
- * Hazardous Waste/Universal Waste/RCRA – Brad Justice, MDEQ
- * Water Permitting for Food Processing – Chris Messemore, MDEQ
- * Non-point Source Pollution and Its Impacts to Water Quality– Donetta McCullum-Weatherspoon, Ph.D., MDEQ
- * Lunch - Featured Speaker: Building a Culture of Sustainability – Sumesh Arora, Ph.D., Mississippi Development Authority
- * Energy Efficiency Improvement and Cost Saving Opportunities for the Food and Beverage Industry – Chao Wang, Ph.D., LSU-Industrial Assessment Center (LSU-IAC)
- * Lean and Green – Ty Posey, Mississippi Polymer Institute (University of Southern Mississippi)
- * Food Safety – Susan Bates, Mississippi State Department of Health (MSDH)
- * E3 (Economy, Energy, Environment) – Joe Jordan, MMA-MEP; and Jay Pate, Peco Foods, Inc.
- * 3:00 p.m. - Adjourn

Break

Refreshments Provided