

2021 EnHance Annual Workshop
“Furthering Sustainability for the Future”
August 25, 2021

The Westin – Downtown
407 South Congress Street
Jackson, Mississippi

TENTATIVE AGENDA
8:00 – 8:30 am	Registration
8:30 – 8:45 am	Welcome and Introduction Mark Williams, Chief, Waste Division, MDEQ
8:45 - 9:15 am	Energy Reduction Approaches for Manufacturers Phillip Williams, Senior Engineer, Operations – Facilities Engineering, Toyota Mississippi
9:15 - 9:45 am	Strategies in Energy Usage for Carbon Footprint Reduction Sumesh Arora, PhD – Director, Energy and Natural Resources Division, Mississippi Development Authority
9:45 -10:00 am	Networking Break
10:00-11:00 am	Developing and Retaining a Sustainable Workforce – Panel Discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tom Cook, Corporate Director Quality, Hol-Mac Corporation • Allison Hawkins, Economic Workforce Development Division Director, Southern MS Planning and Development District • Mitzi Woods, Workforce Director, South Delta Planning and Development District • Garrett McInnis, Deputy Director for External Affairs, Accelerate Mississippi • Sandy Crist, Mississippi Community College Board, Assistant Executive Director, Workforce, Career & Technical, and Adult Education
11:00-11:30 am	Materials Management: Reduction, Reuse, and Recycling in Mississippi Mark Williams, Chief, Waste Division, MDEQ
11:30-12:00 am	The Lasting Benefits of Community Improvement Projects Brandon Wynn - Nucor Steel Jackson
12:00–1:30 pm	Awards Luncheon Keynote Presentation – Growing Renewable Energy in Mississippi Brent Bailey – Public Service Commissioner, Central District of Mississippi Awards Presentation for 2020 and 2021 EnHance Members Chris Wells – MDEQ Executive Director

Mississippi Manufacturers Association