The Human Resources Office is accepting applications for the following job vacancy in the Office of Pollution Control.

Position: Environmental/Natural Resources Specialist I
Starting Salary: $33,500.00
Location: Field Services Division (Pearl & Biloxi Vacancies)

Minimum Qualifications:

Examples of work:
- Collects, preserves, and labels air, water, soil, and other environmentally related samples.
- Performs routine physical, chemical, biological, or geological field and laboratory tests, assays, and analyses.
- Performs on site inspections and field investigations.
- Maintains records and reports on on site inspections and field investigations.
- Maintains chemicals and supplies for testing.
- Performs basic maintenance of equipment and instruments.
- Provides proactive information to stakeholders to keep them informed of current and potential environmental situations.
- Performs related or similar duties as required or assigned.